This list joins the other thirty-five USCS Data Sheets created and/or compiled over the years to aid collectors of naval covers with another focus area on which to build a collection and develop into a navophilatelic exhibit.

The primary source of information for this project came from United States Naval Aviation 1910-1995, Appendix 12 "Ships Named for Naval Aviators." The names on the list were verified and cross-checked with the Dictionary of American Fighting Ships (DANFS) (both online and print formats). Additionally, I used Wikipedia to verify ship naming and to determine changes in ship classification. The Naval Vessel Register (NVR) proved to be a useful reference for cross-checking facts. Two additional references were consulted to complete the Post Office POE column on the sheets. They were the USCS Catalog of US Naval Postmarks 5th Ed. 1997 and the Naval Cover Museum found at http://www.navalcovermuseum.org/restored/Naval_Cover_Museum.html.

All of the above references were used to extend the original listing which ended with ships constructed up through 1995 to include newly named ships through 2014.

Any errors or omissions are the sole responsibility of the author.

Column Details:

Ship- Lists the ship's full commissioned name and designation(s)

Named for- Lists Rank, full name and service branch. In cases where there were multiple family members who served in the Naval Services, only those who were directly named at the ship's commissioning listed in regular font while other members are listed in italic with launch/commissioning dates blacked out.

Launch Date- Formal launch date.

Commissioning Date- Formal date of commissioning

Post Office POE- Date listed in the USCS Catalog of US Naval Postmarks for the first date that the ship's Post Office was established.

Note that the catalog lists a POE date for almost every ship on this list; the Naval Cover Museum does not yet have a sample postmark for each ship. Therefore, as you search for covers from these ships, if you find a postmark that is not represented in the Museum or is of a different Locy type, please make a scanned copy and send it to the Museum Coordinator for inclusion.

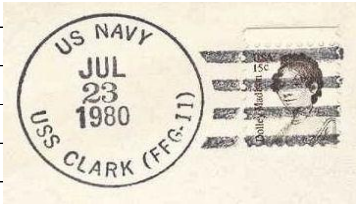

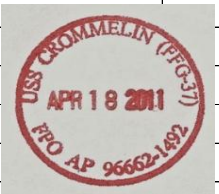

Enjoy the challenge.
